

Capital can only be

CAPITAL

when it is

ACCUMULATING

and it can only accumulate
by moving

Accumulate: to heap up in a mass, to pile up; to mass, collect, or accrue (esp. wealth or possessions).

Production: the action or process of making goods from components or raw materials; the manufacture of goods for sale and consumption.

capitalists with the means of PRODUCTION

creditors

conquerors
of land made
property

and producing through systems of

SEVERE

Subsistence: the action or fact of providing support for human or animal life; the provision of food or provender. In modern use often with reference to a bare or minimum level of existence.

Inequality: the condition of being unbalanced; disharmony.

INEQUALITY

among human groups

workers without the means of
SUBSISTENCE

debtors

the dispossessed
and removed